1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 3, 28 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Milocco (U. S. Pat. No. 4,741,353) in view of Tryon (U. S. Pat. No. 2,018,769).

Re claim 1, Milocco is cited disclosing note that Milocco discloses a dishwasher comprising:

a washing chamber (6);

top (12) and bottom nozzles (11) injecting water in the washing chamber;

a sump (7) provided under the washing chamber to store the water;

a pump (9) pumping the water stored in the sump;

a supply pipe (13, 14) adjacent to one side of the pump wherein the water pumped by the pump flows in the supply pipe;

upper and lower pipes leading the water to the top and bottom nozzles, respectively;

and

a valve assembly (15) connecting the supply pipe to the upper and lower pipes to selectively open/close the upper or lower pipe using a pressure of the pumped water being separate from the pump, that differs from the claim only in the recitation of the valve assembly being comprised of a first guide portion and a second guide portion being coupled together. Tyron discloses a valve assembly being comprised of a first and second portions being coupled together. It therefore would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to modify the valve assembly of Milocco, to as taught by Tyron, for the purpose of allowing for cleaning/maintenance/repair of the valve. Re claim 3, Milocco discloses the diameter as claimed. Re claims 28 and 29, Milocco discloses the supply pipe and groove as proposedly modified by Tyron.

3. Claims 17-21 and 22-27 are allowed.
4. Claims 7-16 stand objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
5. Applicant's arguments with respect to the pending claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
